Why should I go? Why should I send a young person? Why should I go (as a worker)?	TYC provides an opportunity for young people to get together and initiate projects, learn skills, hear from dynamic speakers and engage with a range of interactive workshops on a wide range of topics. It also provides an excellent mechanism to increase the social capacity and engagement of a broad range of young people. TYC also provides a unique opportunity for workers within the youth sector to strengthen social capital through networking, sharing and learning from the positive and negative experiences of their peers, as well as developing their skills and knowledge. As with the young side of the conference, workers in the sector will also hear from engaging speakers.
Is the event catered for?	Yes. Morning and afternoon tea, as well as lunch, will be provided. Dinner will also be provided for those attending the evening entertainment.
What about specific dietary requirements?	Please fill out the section on the registration forms regarding dietary requirements.
When will registration forms be available?	Registrations are now open and can be completed at online via this link: https://tyc17.eventbrite.com.au
