

31 May 2023

Media Alert

Report Recognises Prolonged Transition to Adulthood for Young Tasmanians

The Youth Network of Tasmania (YNOT), the Tasmanian Behavioural Lab and the Peter Underwood Centre will officially launch a report entitled Emergent Adulthood: Review of Literature in Hobart tomorrow {THURSDAY, 1 JUNE}.

This important piece of work integrates academic literature to better understand the general challenges and experiences of young people between the ages of 18-25 years in Tasmania today.

Chief Executive Officer, Tania Hunt from the Youth Network of Tasmania, Professor Swee-Hoon Chuah from the Tasmanian Behavioural Lab, Dr. Becky Shelley from the Peter Underwood Centre and young Tasmanian, Jarin White will be available for interview.

What: Launch of Emergent Adulthood: Review of Literature Report

Who: Chief Executive Officer, Tania Hunt from the Youth Network of Tasmania, Professor Swee-Hoon Chuah from the Tasmanian Behavioural Lab, Dr. Becky Shelley from the Peter Underwood Centre, and young Tasmanian Jarin White.

When: Tomorrow {THURSDAY} 1 June, 9.30am

Where: Tasmanian Behavioural Lab, Lower Ground, 100 Melville Street, Hobart

Media contact: Tania Hunt, 0427 466 189, ceo@ynot.org.au